

What Child IS this?
vort-2012-12-21

Hello everyone and welcome to The Vortex where lies and falsehoods are trapped and exposed. I'm Michael Voris.

During this Christmas season .. a close examination of Our Blessed Lord is in order. Though He came to us in the form of a child, He was not destined to remain so. He did not arrive on earth to be child.

His divine nature came from the heavenly realm of eternity with His Father. But His human nature descended from His Jewish background.

He had noble blood in His veins which He inherited from the womb of the Virgin, who Herself was from the lineage of the House of the Great Jewish King, David. This much is beyond dispute for the masses would have never allowed the claim of His messiahship without this bare minimum requirement having been met.

Our Blessed Lord would never deny his descent from the royal throne of David, but He went to great lengths to explain that his royal descent was not the explanation of the relation between Him and His Eternal Father.

Matthew wrote his gospel to the Jews .. presenting the parallel between their sacred writing of Genesis where man was created and this genesis of the NEW Man .. the second man .. one of a different order .. not just one of many in the line of descent.

This child is in fact .. a new beginning .. a new genesis.

Matthew traces this child's roots back to the beginnings of the chosen people, setting Him forth as both Son of David and Son of Abraham.

Luke .. writing for the Gentiles .. reveals the child's descent all the way back to Adam. Luke desires that the Gentiles understand the humanity thru the genealogy.

Matthew desires that the Jews understand the Messiahship thru the genealogy.

And then we have St. John.

St. John .. having taken into his house the Mother of the New Man .. the Mother of the Messiah .. and having Her profound insight of being so FULL OF GRACE and the Mother of Grace Himself .. John shows forth that this child is not only traceable to David .. and before that Abraham and even prior to that Adam .. and moreover .. not only that He was a New man .. but that he came from the stars.

... that He didn't participate in light .. but that HE IS light. He is the source of the order .. the wisdom by which all things were made .. what the Greeks called .. the Logos and what we call the WORD.

He is the source by which Adam and Abraham and David came into Being. Born of them all .. He preceded each of them.

So He is both beginning and end of the human race .. the first born .. not only of the Virgin who brought forth her first born ... but first and only born of the Father before ALL ages.

What Child is This then? The word .. who was WITH God and who IS God .. who was .. in the beginning.

A simple manger .. cradling Eternity .. born in a town whose name means House of Bread .. who would grow to manhood to give us His flesh as bread to eat so that we might live with Him beyond the stars.

From all of us here .. at ChurchMilitant.TV and St. Michael's Media .. a very Holy and Happy Christmas from all of us to all and each of you.

GOD Love you,

I'm Michael Voris
